We have special relationships with over 40 of the finest sporting estates in the UK from the Cornish coast to the wilds of Scotland, country houses to hidden gems. We take great pride in offering the best, the most comprehensive of fishing experiences along with the newest range of tackle for the modern angler. Whatever the species, we have the ideal location, equipment and supplies for you to land everything from the smallest wild trout to the biggest ocean predator.

You may be about to make your first cast or have a lifetime's experience under your belt – but we have experienced ghillies to ensure the optimum experience. For this occasion we have chosen Sportfish fly fishing school for fly casting lessons, chalkstream fishing and river courses for salmon & sea trout.

This is a fantastic location, and only half an hour's drive outside London.

With a reputation from customers and peers in our industry alike, The Royal Berkshire Shooting School is often regarded as the most innovative and forward thinking shooting school in the UK.

Having worked with the RBSS for many years, we can confidently recommend the services it provides from the realism and variety of shooting stands to the hospitality and welcome within its shooting lodge, which are considered the benchmark for others to achieve.

No visit will be complete unless you visit the famous Gun Room which offers the finest range of shotguns, firearms and ancillary equipment in the Thames Valley.
